About the HACC Foundation

The HACC Foundation is a nonprofit educational trust established in 1985 to raise private and corporate revenues in support of HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College. Thanks to visionary founders and the largesse of many, the HACC Foundation is among the wealthiest of any community college foundation in the nation. Funds are administered by the Executive Director for Institutional Advancement and the HACC Foundation. Members of HACC's Board of Directors represent accomplished corporate and community leaders who are committed to raising awareness and funds for HACC, its students, programs, and facilities.

Message from the Board Chair and Executive Director

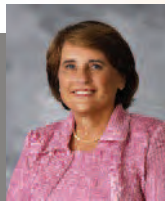

Greg King
Chair, HACC
Foundation Board of Directors

The HACC Foundation celebrates its Silver Anniversary this year! Since its inception in 1985, the Foundation has grown exponentially. Today, the HACC Foundation, comprising more than 200 funds with a current value of $26 million dollars, is recognized as one of the 10 largest community college foundations in the country.

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of every individual, business, organization, and foundation whose gift, large or small, has made this phenomenal growth possible. New funds have been established to honor individuals and to support special programs and facilities. This year, as always, hundreds of HACC alumni, staff, and faculty have responded generously to our annual appeals. In September 2009, our annual Frank J. Dixon Tournament for Scholarships netted a record $144,000 in scholarship funds, and fund raising for the renovation and expansion of the Senator John J. Shumaker Public Safety Center has reached an unprecedented level.

HACC Foundation

As a result of such generous giving, the HACC Foundation again contributed more than $2 million dollars to the College in scholarships, special programs and facilities support. More than 1,000 students received financial assistance. Our $100,000 Targeted Retraining for Displaced Workers grant assisted workers who lost their jobs during the financial crisis. Our magnificent arboretum and the Rose Lehrman Arts Center received funding critical for the maintenance of their excellent facilities, and our sophisticated IT system, so crucial to the efficient running of every aspect of the College, received funds for necessary updates and maintenance.

In our nation today there is much talk of “change.” HACC and the HACC Foundation truly provide the opportunity for individuals to change, at any point in their lives. Many of our students are the first in their families to pursue higher education. Others need to add new skills or sharpen existing ones because they have a new job, lost an old job, or have been required by personal life circumstances to start all over again. Whatever the need, HACC provides accessible, affordable education.

Thank you to the many generous individuals, organizations, foundations, and businesses who contribute to the HACC Foundation. The Board and staff of the Foundation strive to be good stewards of the dollars you have invested with us. Your generosity enables us, together, to change the world – one student at a time.

Celebrating 25 Years of Excellence

The HACC Foundation was established on June 19, 1985, through the innovation and guidance of HACC President Kenneth B. Woodbury, Jr. Ed.D., to engender community involvement through fund raising, scholarship aid efforts, and partnerships with community organizations and businesses. The Foundation was charged with making certain that HACC was recognized as a Pennsylvania leader. Trustee Chairman Jim Evans said it would “enable the college to do extraordinary things, above and beyond what the regular finances of the college provide for,” especially in academics.

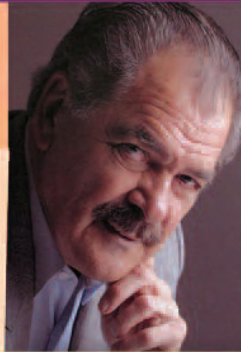

HACC Vice President Jay Ebersole, Ed.D., was the Foundation’s first Executive Director. A Board of Directors, led by William H. Alexander, was established to oversee the management and allocation of gifts to the Foundation.

In 1989, during the Silver Anniversary Celebration of the founding of HACC and only four years after establishment of the HACC Foundation, the Foundation’s assets had grown to $5.7 million. On June 19, 1989, the fourth anniversary of its incorporation by the Commonwealth, the HACC Foundation was ranked as the fifth largest community college foundation in the nation.

Twenty-five years later, as we celebrate our own Silver Anniversary, the HACC Foundation has assets valued at $26 million. We still have the same focus and dedication the founding members envisioned: to support scholarships, campus facilities, cultural affairs, educational equipment, facilities enrichment, and innovative programming not funded through the college’s operating budget. Annually, we award over $1 million in scholarship assistance.

Revenues from the Foundation’s endowments have provided support for new buildings – Hall Technology Center, the Lebanon Campus, C. Ted Lick Wildwood Conference Center, North Hall, Stabler Hall, Select Medical Health Education Pavilion, Pollock Childcare Center, Midtown Center 1 and Midtown Center 2, and provided funding for many upgrades to existing buildings.

Through the generous donations of many, we continue with the vision and innovation that began 25 years ago to create a community involvement to ensure HACC’s success for the future.

Leaders are Keys to Success

Leadership gifts set the bar high and encourage others to add their support. Among the individuals whose leadership played a key role during the past 25 years are those pictured here. We owe them and others our ongoing gratitude.

Swope's Planned Gift a Call to Foundation's Potential

"Twenty-five years ago the HACC Foundation was born of the vision and energy of Dr. Kenneth Woodbury, Jr., Ed.D., HACC's president.

HACC faculty and staff were the initial investors in the HACC Foundation, contributing $35,000 in gifts and pledges. Their gifts were soon followed by contributions from corporate, business, and philanthropic leaders in the community who had come to know the excellence of our academic programs and their value to the region.

Early in these formative years, Dr. Woodbury proposed that one Foundation project could be to fund a carillon clock tower as a centerpiece and gathering place at the quadrangle of the Harrisburg campus. With its Westminster chimes, the carillon would promote community feeling, aesthetic appreciation, and the timely call to the class day's schedule and college festivities. A carillon clock tower might qualify as an instructional lab for electronic music technology. Students would have a lab available for hands-on experience of selecting repertoire, producing programs, creating recorded tapes, engineering time schedules, and learning the technology of electronic music. We already had faculty members skilled in this new discipline. The state agreed to fund the proposal, but where would we get funding to cover the other 50 percent of the cost?

Our focus soon turned to Helen Y. Swope, a marvelously gracious lady, vigorous community leader, constant campus observer, and advocate for the best interests of students, faculty, and college support. In naming the carillon in her honor, we hoped to ensure that her legacy to the College would remain for future generations.

Immediately, Swope's friends generously came forward to recognize her. Meanwhile, she informed Dr. Woodbury that she had earlier included a bequest to the HACC Foundation in her estate planning. From her initial planned gift the Helen Y. Swope Carillon Society was formed, and the mission and growth of Harrisburg Area Community College through the HACC Foundation was ensured."

From remarks by Jay Ebersole, Ed.D., First Executive Director of the HACC Foundation, at the Carillon Society Celebration on June 2, 2010.

Private Support Critical in Perilous Times

Francis B. Haas, Jr.

“Without a doubt, HACC is one of the most influential and significant institutions in all of Central Pennsylvania. We are facing perilous economic times. Now, more than ever, it is critical that this college continue. What must happen is what has happened to this college from the beginning – ongoing public support as well as the support of generous private donors. Private giving doesn’t happen too often at public-supported institutions – and we don’t even have a football team! The way we can keep this support going is to make sure the importance of HACC is known throughout the region.”

From remarks by Francis B. Haas, Jr., HACC’s original solicitor, at the Carillon Society Celebration on June 2, 2010.

Golf Tournament Marks 14 Years

The HACC Foundation is proud to recognize these long-time sponsors of its annual Tournament for Scholarships (right). The Tournament for Scholarships, now the Frank J. Dixon Tournament for Scholarships at HACC, was first held in 1996. Over the past 14 years, the generosity of these and other donors has enabled the Foundation to award nearly $1.5 million in scholarship support to worthy HACC students.

Vision

Share the Vision... Shape the Future

HACC's Share the Vision... Shape the Future major gifts campaigns bring together community partners committed to making a difference in their local communities through sound investments in people, programs, and facilities. These campaigns demonstrate HACC's leadership as the region's premier educational and workforce development institution.

Gettysburg Campus celebrates anniversary with focus on recognition HACC–Gettysburg Campus celebrated its 20th anniversary of commitment to the Adams/Hanover/Franklin communities by thanking those who have been instrumental in HACC's inception and growth over the last two decades. To celebrate this milestone, Vice President Jennifer Weaver led the campus in a year-long series of programs, events, and recognitions to highlight students, staff, faculty, alumni, and community partners.

In conjunction with the 20th anniversary, a community campaign for student scholarships was launched to support students. In 2008-09, more than $1.7 million in need-based scholarships and grants were awarded to nearly 50 percent of students enrolled at the Gettysburg Campus. The HACC-Gettysburg Campus Scholarship Partners program will run through 2011, focusing on an investment of $1,000 or more in the Opportunity and Access Scholarship Fund.

Lancaster campaign will meet students' needs and help community to grow

In celebration of the 20th year anniversary of HACC's presence in Lancaster, the HACC–Lancaster Campus introduced a $1 million scholarship campaign. Now, with the arrival of new Lancaster

Vice President L. Marshall Washington, Ph.D., the campaign has picked up momentum.

The Opportunity & Access Scholarship Funds include:

- Lancaster Champions – Provides funding to high school graduates to support enrollment at HACC–Lancaster Campus, promote the value of higher education, and build awareness of career pathway opportunities.

- Adult Career Pathways – Provides funding to students who have been out of high school for three or more years and are enrolled at HACC–Lancaster Campus to launch a new career or enhance their current career path.
- Campus Scholars – Provides funding to HACC–Lancaster Campus students who have completed a minimum of 24 credit hours of instruction at HACC and are enrolled in a transfer-oriented program seeking to further their higher education at a partnering college or other institution.

Campaign momentum will be fueled by the recent "Lancaster 2020, Shaping Our Future Summary Report." In the report, participants voted for the most promising opportunity to effect change. The top priority was "ensuring access to quality education." HACC's scholarship campaign will ensure access to education and provide an educated workforce to meet our region's business and industry needs.

Lebanon prepares to celebrate 20 years in community

Change is in the air as we prepare to celebrate 20 years in the Lebanon community. The Lebanon Trade and Technology Center, which will be located at the northwest corner of the facility, is the centerpiece of an initiative to enhance and expand programs and facilities at the Lebanon Campus. In 2009, an 18-month workforce assessment was completed with more than 100 Lebanon Valley business executives being interviewed. Approximately a dozen skill gaps in the local workforce were identified through this process. Vice President Kathleen Kramer, Ed.D., and her team are in the process of developing new certificate and degree programs to meet these needs. The Lebanon Trade and Technology Center will be the focal point of a friend-raising and fund-raising campaign in the coming year.

Major Gifts

As part of a major renovation of the first and second floors of the Lebanon Campus this past year, a customer-friendly student affairs suite now provides easy access to registration, financial aid and counseling.

The bookstore will be relocated to a prominent location just inside the main entrance to the campus. The Lebanon Campus is also adopting the Welcome Center model, with a reception desk and security station centrally located on the first floor to provide a friendly and secure environment for all members of the campus community. Finally, a dedicated student life area with a small café will be developed on the second floor to encourage a community atmosphere among the nearly 1,400 students.

The growth of the campus over the last few years has necessitated many of these changes. Enrollment at HACC–Lebanon Campus has skyrocketed from just under 1,000 students in 2007 to a projected enrollment of more than 1,400 in the fall of 2010. The combination of our 20th anniversary, a newly renovated building, new programs, and the Lebanon Trade and Technology Center make this an exciting time to be a part of the HACC family in Lebanon.

Shumaker Public Safety Center campaign on record-breaking pace

Launched just last April, the Senator John J. Shumaker Public Safety Center campaign to Help Tomorrow's First Responders, Today! is on a record-breaking pace. Thanks to a Public Safety Partners program that has the total commitment of Public Safety staff, a willingness on behalf of our Midtown partners to extend their pledges to Public Safety, the Dauphin County Commissioners, U.S. Congressman Tim Holden, State Senator Jeffrey Piccola, and the leadership of Nancy Rockey, Vice President of College and Community Development and Interim Vice President, Harrisburg Campus, the campaign is ready to exceed its goal.

The Public Safety Center, located on the Harrisburg Campus, trains approximately 30,000 first responders a year. The building and grounds have rarely seen a break in activity since the Center was built 21 years ago. Naturally, this critically needed resource is showing its age and limitations. To develop a safe, state-of-the-art training facility to meet future community needs, HACC's Board of Trustees approved a four-phase renovation and expansion master plan to extend over the next 20 years. Phase I, a $14.3 million project to be completed by December 2012, focuses on remedies to targeted areas in need of the most immediate attention. Our health and safety depend on the high-quality training that firefighters, police officers, and emergency medical personnel receive at HACC's Public Safety Center. The campaign to Help Tomorrow's First Responders, Today! will ensure they receive the most state-of-the-art instruction for many years to come.

York campaign halfway toward $1 million campaign goal

Since it was launched a year ago, the HACC's York Campus Opportunity & Access Scholarship Campaign has rapidly gained the enthusiastic support of York-area businesses, organizations, and individuals who understand the value of a highly qualified, well-educated workforce in today's challenging economic environment. Thanks to the generosity of these donors, we have now passed the halfway point toward the $1 million campaign goal.

Three funds – the York Campus Annual Scholarship, York Campus Emergency Assistance Fund, and York Campus Opportunity and Access Scholarship Endowment – now comprise the campaign opportunities. In addition, a number of other funds have been endowed by committed organizations and individuals to provide financial assistance to hard-working students who lack the ability to pay for their education. They are:

- The Stewart Companies Scholarship Endowment
- The Women's Network of York – New Beginnings Award Fund
- The York Allied Health Scholarship Endowment
- The York Campus Technology and Equipment Fund
- York Campus Workforce Advancement Fund
- The York City Scholarship Endowment

Vice President Jean Treuthart and her team at HACC–York Campus are deeply appreciative to all the donors who have enabled us to reach the midway point in our scholarship campaign.

THE CARILLON SOCIETY

Carillon Society members invest in the future

Membership in the Carillon Society is an honor extended by the HACC Foundation to all those who inform us that they have included the College in their estate plans.

Whether they name us as the beneficiary of a bequest in their will, of a retirement or an insurance plan, or perhaps of a charitable remainder or lead trust, Carillon Society members are expressing a deep commitment to the college and to the community. Their collective vision and generosity will assure that we can fulfill our academic mission not only now, but far into the future. Their legacy gifts send out a message loud and clear: HACC is here to serve our community – today, tomorrow, and forever.

To date, the HACC Foundation has received the proceeds of 17 planned gifts, totaling $2,027,788. Fourteen gifts have established named scholarship funds, three have established program-related funds, and one was an unrestricted gift.

The HACC Foundation is embarking on a focused effort to increase the number of members in the Carillon Society. In the past year alone, we have identified 13 new members. We extend our heartfelt thanks to each and every one who has provided for HACC in this way – not only for your vision and generosity in supporting the college, but for letting us know that you have done so. It is our honor and privilege to be able to thank you for this special gift.

Charitable gift planning allows you to support issues and causes that are important to you and will bear your name long into the future. By making charitable gifts, you can realize substantial income and estate tax benefits. Some of the most popular planned giving methods include the following (be sure to consult a tax advisor for advice specific to your own needs and circumstances):

Bequests

Making a bequest in your will or trust is the simplest of all planned gifts. You can choose to leave specific named assets to the HACC Foundation, or you can direct that a stated dollar amount or a certain percentage of the residue of your estate will benefit the College.

Life Insurance

Life insurance policies that are no longer necessary to support family make good gifts. You simply change the beneficiary and the ownership of a paid-up policy to the HACC Foundation. You might purchase a new life insurance policy naming the HACC Foundation as beneficiary and owner and pay the premium directly to the Foundation. In that circumstance, premium payments are tax-deductible contributions.

Charitable Lead Trusts

A Charitable Lead Trust enables you to make a significant gift to HACC now and still provide for your heirs in the future. You establish a lead trust with your attorney's assistance and contribute securities or other appreciating assets into the trust account. The trust makes annual payments to HACC for a defined period of time. When the trust terminates, all of the remaining assets are paid to the heirs.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

A Charitable Remainder Trust allows you or your beneficiaries to receive fixed lifetime annual payments from a trust that you establish. When the trust terminates, the remainder is paid to the HACC Foundation.

Securities

When you give highly appreciated securities that you have held for over a year to the HACC Foundation, the college receives the full value of those securities, and you avoid having to pay income or estate tax on the appreciation. You also receive an immediate income tax deduction for your charitable contribution.

Opportunities to Give

We pay tribute in this Annual Report to all those donors who have given so generously in support of HACC and our students. Their success attests to the transformational impact of your investment, not only on individuals, but also on the communities where we live and work.

Many opportunities exist within the HACC Foundation to have such an impact, including those listed below:

- Share the Vision...Shape the Future
HACC's four major gifts campaigns bring together community partners committed to making a difference in their local communities through sound investments in people, programs, and facilities. These campaigns demonstrate HACC's leadership as the region's premier educational and workforce development institution.
- Scholarship and Award Endowments
Many donors choose to contribute to an existing scholarship program or award fund, while others elect to establish a new named fund. Scholarship endowments are established with a gift of $10,000 or more; award funds begin at the $3,000 level. Permanently restricted funds are guided by a Total Return Spending Policy, as annually reviewed and determined by the HACC Foundation Board of Directors.
- Academic Program Support
HACC offers hundreds of academic programs, many of which are designed to strengthen our region's workforce. Support for academic programs can enhance teaching and learning by providing new equipment and materials, supporting professional development for HACC professors, or funding enrichment activities, such as trips to conferences.
- Honorary and Memorial Gifts
The HACC Foundation gratefully accepts contributions made in memory of a friend or loved one. Memorial contributions can be made toward an existing endowment, or toward the creation of a new memorial endowment. Donors may also choose to sponsor a planting at a HACC campus in honor or memory of a loved one.
- Program and Events Sponsorship
Private and corporate donors are encouraged to sponsor special events and cultural programs, such as our annual golf tournament for scholarships or our Live at Rose Lehrman performing arts series.

Gift Types

The HACC Foundation welcomes contributions of cash, stock, property, real estate, and planned/estate gifts. Many donors choose to establish annuity trusts and/or to name HACC as a beneficiary in a gift of life insurance. Gift-in-kind contributions of goods or services to the HACC Foundation are welcomed.

We invite you to contact Executive Director Jayne B. Abrams at 717-780-2583 to discuss specific gift ideas and opportunities.
