Greetings!

We are so excited to start the fall 2015 semester! During the summer months, we kept busy in the community working to build opportunities for our students at HACC! The feedback and support has been tremendous! A huge thank you to our Welcome Center staff for all of their hard work heading into the fall 2015 semester!

We are also building new opportunities for veterans through a partnership with the Veterans Administration Hospital. Stay tuned for more details and developments over the next year.

During the first week of classes our Student Government Association provided free food and a variety of give-a-ways. As you can see, it was a great way to kick-off the semester! We hope you stopped by and will join us throughout the semester at other events sponsored by SGA!

Laurie Bowersox
Welcome to the Lebanon Campus!

David L. Edwards joined the Lebanon campus as the Facilities Supervisor on Aug. 10. Dave graduated from Clarion State College with a BS in Earth Science - Geology. He also has course work in Project Management from Penn State and course work in Urban and Regional Planning from Indiana University of PA. He was an Engineer Officer in the Army and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in 2009 with 29 years of service. He worked as the long range construction/ master planner for the PA National Guard as a contractor prior to coming to HACC. Dave says the three best jobs he ever had were as the FT Indiantown Gap Director of Public Works, Military Science (ROTC) Instructor at IUP and his current position at HACC. “I love working in the Facilities world and love being around young people.” This position at HACC does both. Dave is married to Robin Edwards, has two grown children, two grandchildren and a very spoiled Rottie named Beauregard.

John Corrigan is very excited to join HACC in the position of Campus Director for Business Affairs for the Lancaster and Lebanon Campus campuses. John is a graduate of Penn State University with a BS in Finance, after graduating from HACC with an Associate degree in Business Administration. He has over 20 years experience serving in a variety of management positions supporting service related industries, which included medical claims operation, facilities and indirect patient care in a major teaching hospital. John enjoys spending time with his entire family, watching many types of sporting events (favorite is college football) and cooking on the grill (year round). He is looking forward to working with everyone here at HACC. Please congratulate John on his new position with the college when you see him.

Bill Romberger is looking forward to again serving the students and staff at the Lebanon Campus in the role of Enrollment Services Specialist. He began his career at HACC in 2003, working part-time in the Bookstore, and was promoted to the position of Bookstore Supervisor/Manager in 2005. Bill remained in that position until 2014. He has had various career paths, including asset specialist and inventory control and management with Xerox, Ryder Logistics and Monarch Warehousing. Bill, an alum of HACC, went on to graduate from Albright College in 2008 with a BS in Applied Psychology. He enjoys community service, volunteering, is active in his church, and celebrates the fact that he is a Candidate for Ministry in the United Methodist Church. In his “spare” time, Bill enjoys traveling, cooking, reading and relaxing at home with his wife Monica, who is a local Pastor in the United Methodist Church. He is honored to be working with his “HACC Family” again.
Summer Fun!

Clearly, a lot of our fun in Lebanon revolves around food, but we also have fun dressing up in crazy outfits! Back in July, we had a Summer Sundae Party, including a contest to judge the “best” resort attire. Annette Beamesderfer went home with the top prize, with Ashley Klug and Cindy Schenke as runners-up. In August, we celebrated the end of summer and the beginning of the fall semester with our annual campus potluck picnic and Convocation. We were thrilled that our first full-tuition scholarship recipient, Alex Jonovich, was able to join us with his family at Convocation. Good times were enjoyed by all!

New Logo debuts on Campus

Staff and students will be seeing a new logo on campus this fall. The logo, left, is the new identity for all HACC Learning and Testing Centers.

Approved by the Office for Academic Success and developed by Office of College Advancement, the new logo easily pinpoints the heart of what goes on at Lebanon in Room 220.

“The idea was to convey to students exactly what we do, and I think the new logo does that,” said Annette Damato-Beamesderfer, director of the Tutoring and Testing Centers here.

“Further, when a student visits another campus or has classes at different campuses, that student will know where to find help by seeing the same logo at each location,” she said.

The new logo is one of the first of its kind identifying a division within the college.

Student Success

Student success continues to be a priority at HACC. One useful tool for helping students succeed is Starfish, our early alert/academic monitoring system. This summer, the Gettysburg campus was featured at a national conference highlighting best practices for early alert. If you haven't already viewed the video featuring our very own student, faculty, and staff, please do so here.

The Starfish link is on MyHACC under HACC Applications, and more information is available under Student Affairs Resources, Student and Academic Success Resources, also on MyHACC. Questions about Starfish can be directed to Christine Nowik, dean of student and academic success.

Spirit Days are back!

Spirit Days at all HACC Campuses will be back beginning Sept. 17, and continuing on the third Thursday of each month. The Bookstore will run 20% off HACC apparel including clearance items on Tuesday, Sept. 15 and Wednesday, Sept. 16. On Spirit Days, employees may dress casually if they wear their HACC Spirit wear!
Welcome Baby Eckert

Days after we surprised Nakia Eckert with cupcakes to celebrate the upcoming birth of her baby, we heard the good news! Nakia and her husband, Greg, became the proud parents of Harrison Gregory on Sept. 2.

Wellness opportunity

You are invited to join Joy Riley, PE Instructor at HACC’s Lebanon Campus, as she helps us build muscle, improve flexibility and reduce stress through Contrology (the art of muscle control). You will also have a chance to win a Fitbit Fitness Tracker at the end of the eight-week session! Go to your calendars right now and schedule time for this weekly session. Details are below:

WHEN: Wednesdays, from Noon to 12:45 p.m., beginning Sept. 9 through Oct. 28

WHERE: Lebanon Campus MPR (Room 105) except Oct. 21 class will be held in Room 115

NEEDED: Mats will be provided, but feel free to bring your own mat if you prefer.

COST: Free!

BONUS: Each week you attend you will be given a ticket to be entered in a drawing for a chance to win a Fitbit Fitness Tracker. Drawing will take place at the Oct. 28 class!
Rising Star Ceremony

Lebanon Campus recognized 30 students early in September for their efforts in the Rising Star program, which honors high academic achievement in initial college classes.

The ceremony, held in the MPR, acknowledged work completed during the Spring 2015 semester. Rising Star candidates are enrolled in English 001 or 002 and to receive honors must complete their semesters with at least a 3.0 GPA.

Each student received a certificate of achievement during the ceremony and a button to wear on a jacket or backpack. A total of 19 students were honored as first-time recipients of the award as “Rising Stars”; additionally, 11 students were recognized as “Shooting Stars” for their strong academic performance for two consecutive semesters. Several students brought family members to the ceremony so others could see the presentation of awards. Those students that could not attend the ceremony will receive their certificates at a later time.

Libraries and Research iBook

HACC is proud to announce the recent publication of the Libraries & Research: Getting Started iBook. This iBook is the culmination of effort by HACC librarians Jennifer Hummel, Barbara Stockland, Corrine Syster and Elise Jackson to develop a resource which assists first-year college students in becoming comfortable with research.

Funding for the project came from HACC’s Virtual Learning, and the iBook was published in August 2015.

Lebanon and Virtual Learning update

Peter Law will begin his work as the interim dean of student affairs for Lebanon and Virtual Learning on Sept. 14. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to David Satterlee, who previously served in that role.
YOUR Update on HACC student types

Across the College, various terms are used to categorize our students. For example, some individuals use the term “prospective student,” and others use “future student.” In spring 2015, the campus leaders, associate provost of academic affairs, members of the Office of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management and members of the Office of College Advancement discussed how the College defines the type of student externally and recognized that some definitions vary.

The chart below lists the student types that will be used on the website and in other promotional materials to the external community. It’s encouraged that the terms be used consistently by the College to avoid confusion with the internal and external communities.

The appropriate colleagues are working together to update the College website and marketing materials to include these new terms. Please update your communications to reflect the approved terms. Thank you.

Student Development & Student Success

A Refreshing Remix

The Office of Student Life at HACC Lebanon has recently been renamed to the Office of Student Development and Student Success. Our college has made a large commitment to strategically help students learn both inside and outside of the classroom. The department seeks to improve leadership training, co-curricular and multicultural programming, and the onboarding process of new students.

Making Connections

The Student Success Team is a newly formed multi-constituency group dedicated to creating a culture of care at HACC Lebanon. We are encouraging all faculty and staff to use Starfish, an early alert tracking software, as a tool to connect to each other and to students more strategically.

As listed to the right, our team will be hosting Starfish training sessions throughout the fall semester. All staff and faculty are encouraged to attend, ask questions, and share experiences.

Flags and Kudos

Faculty now have the ability to easily alert students of their current status in a course. Starfish serves as an early alert system as well as a place to simply say “Kudos to you!” for outstanding work. Students have shown much appreciation to faculty who recognize their efforts by providing kudos via Starfish.

Success Team Flag

Perhaps you, as a faculty or staff member, suspect that external issues are affecting a student’s ability to be successful in the classroom. While you want to notify the Student Success Team, you don’t want the student to view the message. We have a specific Starfish flag designed for these situations! Once you raise this flag, the team will refer the case to the appropriate resource.

A message from our Career Advisor

DO WHAT YOU LOVE/LOVE WHAT YOU DO:

“Explore YOUR Career”

Many of our students are in the process of trying to find the thing in life about which they are most passionate. And they’re stuck. They might have a vague idea about their professional goals but they don’t have a true sense of what a specific job might entail. They don’t recognize their greatest strengths, or the kinds of tasks that will disappoint and fail to bring a sense of satisfaction or contribution. How do we help them to begin to develop their own, unique career path?

Career Services is excited to introduce the following: Career Coach, an online tool to help our students explore careers and make informed career decisions. Career Coach is now fully integrated into our hacc.edu website. We have strategically placed Career Coach in numerous locations on the website, and in each location Career Coach is linked by the tagline "Explore YOUR Career" or a web button containing that tagline. The easiest way to find Career Coach, or direct students to it, is to use the search bar and enter the words “career coach”.

We are particularly excited about Career Coach as a tool for our current and prospective students to do the following:

- Use up-to-date, localized employment data for careers (students can glean separate data from our five campus service regions). This data will help students make informed career and major decisions.

- Use the employment data to “begin with the end in mind”, a mindset that encourages the connection of academic coursework, career development, and academic and career goal setting.

- Learn more about our academic programs – All our current academic program pages are linked from the Career Coach website.

If you’d like me to present this tool to your students, which can be done in a 15-minute window of your class or can be incorporated into a workshop to be presented during an entire class period, please contact me (hgbrubak@hacc.edu/717-270-6359). Additionally, I am available to present on resume writing, interview skills, soft skills, and many more career-related topics.

YOUR Feedback is needed!

On Sept. 25, 2015, you will receive an online survey from TWG Plus, our integrated marketing communications firm. The results of the survey will be used by the firm and HACC to continue to move forward in meeting our vision of being the first choice for a quality and accessible higher education opportunity.

We value your feedback, and we appreciate you taking the time to complete the survey by Oct. 9, 2015.

Learn to Fish with the Office of College Advancement

We’ve all heard the quote, “Give a man a fish, and you feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish, and you feed him for a lifetime.”

The Teach You to Fish video series from the Office of College Advancement will empower you to handle tasks like:

- Using templates to create flyers, brochures and more for current students and employees
- Downloading and using images from Flickr
- Building awareness and engagement on Facebook and Twitter
- Using WorkZone to manage integrated marketing communications projects
- Incorporating life-changing efficiency tips into your work
- Interviewing with the media
- Managing your website content
- Mastering Associated Press style
- Incorporating the YOURS brand in your work

HACC student sacrifices for education but knows it’s worth it

For a mother of four children who is putting herself through college, financial support is a big deal. Thanks to the HACC Foundation, Thelma Washington is one of many students at HACC, Central Pennsylvania’s Community College, to receive scholarships from the HACC Foundation.

Washington returned to HACC to pursue a credential in the fields of technology and real estate, so she can help those who are struggling to find affordable housing. She explained in her scholarship essay, “I too have struggled to provide for my household with our budget. But to sacrifice for my education is very important as a 52-year old adult. Receiving one or several scholarships will help me stay focused on my educational goal and yet provide for my household. I am starting over with my education to help myself and others who may be homeless or perhaps sleeping in their cars with their family. I know what it’s like to lose a job and a home. But I’ve come to this conclusion: As long as there is breath in your body, God has given one the opportunity to start over again.”

Washington took the step to start over and became a recipient of the Millard C. Freysinger Scholarship. “The scholarship helped me get my books and the materials that I needed. It really helped me to not struggle as hard as I would have,” said Washington.

The scholarships are provided to help students pay for their tuition, books and fees. The scholarship cycle opened Aug. 4, 2015. With more than 200 scholarships available, HACC students are encouraged to apply by Oct. 1 for funds that will financially assist them during the spring 2016 term. Students must be enrolled at HACC to apply for the scholarships.

Students receive scholarships and awards from the HACC Foundation as a result of charitable contributions from private and corporate donors throughout Central Pennsylvania. These scholarships and awards were established to provide educational opportunities for students who are in need, who are studying particular programs, who excel academically, who are involved in community service or who meet other criteria.

The HACC Foundation awarded 2013-14 scholarships to 845 students totaling nearly $1.1 million to be used for tuition and book costs.

Students can apply online through AcademicWorks, a convenient scholarship management system that allows HACC to efficiently match students with relevant scholarship opportunities, manage awards and recognize scholarship donors. Students only need to apply once per cycle and are automatically matched to one or more scholarship opportunities based on specific criteria. An online video tutorial is available to provide instruction on how to easily navigate the scholarship application process.

Future students can apply to the College online and then begin the application process for scholarships by visiting hacc.edu/scholarships. Current students may visit https://hacc.academicworks.com to get started.
New look for the HACC Foundation

The HACC Foundation, the non-profit organization established in 1985 to raise private and corporate revenues in support of HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College, is pleased to announce the new:

1) HACC Foundation website
2) HACC Foundation logo

The design and coding of the new website were initiated by three Capstone Web Program students in spring 2014. They are now HACC alumni, each with an associate degree in Web development and design.

The HACC Foundation is truly grateful for this gift, as the new website is a tool that will help the Foundation grow its funds to further support HACC students and academic programs. It will also help to communicate more effectively and efficiently with our donors.

To accompany the new website, a new HACC Foundation logo was designed. The new logo helps to visually connect the HACC Foundation and the trademarked HACC logo.

For more information about these enhancements, I invite you to read the news release in HACC’s online newsroom.

Volunteers needed for scholarship review

The HACC Foundation is continuing the award process for 2016-17 scholarships. We are now offering a second chance for our students to receive scholarship funds this year through our online scholarship management system.

We are in need of volunteers to serve on our scholarship selection committees. As a volunteer, you will be asked to log on to AcademicWorks to review scholarship applications anytime between Oct. 7 and Oct. 26. If you volunteer, you will receive specific instructions by Oct. 5.

If you would like to volunteer to serve on a scholarship selection committee, please complete this online form by Oct. 1:

http://www.hacc.edu/Paying/CanIGetAid/ScholarshipsandGrants/Scholarship-Reviewers.cfm

Also, if you were a reviewer last year, you will automatically be a reviewer again this year unless you indicate otherwise.

YOUR help with this project will ensure we are selecting the right candidates for our scholarship awards. The reviewer process is easy, so please help us to recognize our exceptional students who deserve a quality, affordable education.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please email HACCScholarships@hacc.edu.
Save the date for the upcoming Hispanic Gala and brush up on your tango!

HACC is partnering with the Lebanon Valley Chamber to host the first ever Hispanic Gala event at the Lebanon Campus Multi-purpose room on Wednesday, Oct. 7, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. There will be networking, entertainment, authentic Latino cuisine, a Mariachi band, and a DJ for dancing! You won't want to miss this must-attend, unique, first ever, one-of-a-kind event!

The event will also feature guest speaker Fernando Trevino, Deputy Executive Director of the Mayor's Office of Immigrant and Multicultural Affairs for the City of Philadelphia. The Hispanic gala is presented by the Lebanon Valley Chamber of Commerce in partnership with Juntos De Lebanon, HACC, and the City of Lebanon.

If you wish to attend, Laurie Bowersox has tickets for sale in her office, Room 106B.
Cost of tickets: $18 Before Sept. 30; $20 After Sept. 30.

Also, at the Gala, themed baskets will be auctioned by raffle. Proceeds from the raffle sales and ticket sales will benefit the establishment of a HACC ESL scholarship.

Items are needed for the following themed baskets: Spa Basket; Family Fun Basket and an International Foods Basket. If you would like to donate items to fill these baskets, please see that Marge Sweeney, adjunct instructor at HACC’s Lebanon Campus, receives the items in Room 316A by Sept. 25. Should you have any questions for Marge regarding the baskets, you may contact her at masweene@hacc.edu.
