April 21-26, 2014: ReDISCOVER HACC
Visit our five campuses to participate in FREE lectures, presentations, classes, movie screenings, open houses, tours and more. Here are a few highlights of what’s in store for the week:

- April 21: An honors lecture, “A String of Pearls: Memory, Mystery and Batman.”
- April 22: A stream cleanup along the Paxton Creek to celebrate Earth Day.
- April 23: A showing of students’ paintings, drawings, graphic design, ceramics, glass and jewelry.
- April 24: An open house, including a fire apparatus and aerial ladder static display, vehicle accident and extrication static display, a backdraft demonstration and more.
- April 25: Guided and self-guided tours to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Arboretum.
- April 26: Theatre for Young People: Jungalbook, the retelling of how the jungle of India is transformed into a playground on which Jungal Law forces teens to choose sides in life or death conflict.

April 22-24, 2014: Dr. Ski's Miles of Gratitude – Tour de HACC
John J. “Ski” Sygielski, Ed.D., HACC’s incomparable president, will take to the road to express his gratitude for all that Central Pennsylvania does for HACC. Dr. Ski will pedal his bike more than 150 miles throughout the region with stops at HACC’s five campuses. At each stop, he'll give away at least FIVE $1,000 scholarships, bicycles, t-shirts, water bottles, gift cards and more!

April 27, 2014: Kings Who Cook
The Harrisburg Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is partnering with HACC to host the 16th annual “Kings Who Cook” gourmet food sampling festival. Men may register to be a king and prepare a delectable dish of his choice for 50 guests to sample. Our own Dr. Ski is participating as a king!

Sept. 17, 2014: Alumni Share Their Stories
Five HACC alumni, including a chef, pastry chef, restaurant manager, hotel manager and travel specialist will share their successes and stories after attending HACC.

Sept. 22, 2014: Frank J. Dixon Tournament for Scholarships
Now in its 18th year, the HACC Foundation’s Frank J. Dixon Tournament for Scholarships is a premier fundraising event. Thanks to the generosity of event sponsors, the HACC Foundation has raised more than $1.7 million since the annual golf tournament started. Typically, each tournament nets approximately $100,000 in scholarship support for HACC students with financial need.

Oct. 17, 2014: Performance of Taps, Tunes and Tall Tales
Tommy Tune, the epitome of Broadway song and dance and the winner of nine Tony awards, will present Taps, Tunes and Tall Tales, an upbeat, celebratory, one-man act.

Oct. 25, 2014: Golden Anniversary Gala
Join us at the Radisson Hotel in Camp Hill, Pa. to learn our history and honor our forebears for having the foresight to create HACC.

Nov. 17, 2014: National Geographic Photographer, William Albert Allard
An evening filled with his experiences as a photographer for National Geographic.
