HACC-GETTYSBURG CAMPUS CAREER SERVICES NEWSLETTER

Helping you reach your dreams

The Gettysburg Campus will be offering HD 101 Career Development & Decision Making in the spring 2010 semester. This course is ideal for students who are uncertain of their career path, undecided about their program of study (major), or for individuals who are simply interested in self-discovery.

HD 101 will allow you to indulge in your curiosity, ask questions, and make new discoveries about yourself and the world.

For more information, contact Dianne Brooks at dgbrooks@hacc.edu.

Limited seating available!

JOIN THE "IN"-CROWD!

Need a business elective for the spring? Consider an internship in business, management, or marketing for academic credit.

Attend an internship information meeting on Wednesday, October 28 at 1:00 p.m. in room 203 for more details!

ACE THAT INTERVIEW!

Mock (practice) interviews will be available by appointment only on November 11th & 12th. This is a great chance to rehearse your answers out loud and receive feedback on your attire, poise, and overall interview performance.

Please contact Lori Hockley at lwhockle@hacc.edu no later than November 5th to schedule your interview slot.

Which Fork Do I Use?

Increase your self-confidence and improve your social graces by attending the free Lunch & Learn on business dining etiquette. Sponsored by the Business Club, this fun event will feature a free catered meal and lots of good tips to impress your co-workers or your potential employer!

If you are not 100% sure about the proper way to butter your bread or how to avoid the “dead fish” handshake, don’t miss this great Lunch & Learn on November 4th, 11:30 a.m. -1:00 p.m.!

Space is limited and pre-registration required. Contact Jess Knouse at jlknouse@hacc.edu to reserve your seat!
