What is Acta Non Verba all about?

Acta Non Verba (ANV) is Latin for “action not words.” ANV focuses on learning about diversity and its impact on our school, community, and our lives as individuals. We learn about our community’s needs and then take action. Taking action is the only way we can make a difference.

Our Mission

“Come join us as we share our culture, language, experience, and different traditions and customs through cultural events, field trips, journalism, and translation. Join us as we learn more about diversity in order to make a difference in our local communities by supporting non-profit organizations and fundraising.”

Activities

ANV takes action in our school and community in many different ways including:

- ❖ Fundraising

- ❖ Writing articles for The Creative Cannon
