Part B: Type of Scholarship Fund

1. Establish an endowed named scholarship

An endowed named scholarship can be created and named with a minimum gift of $35,000. The scholarship funds would be invested, and the interest that accrues each year would be awarded to students as scholarships. For example, at an estimated annual interest rate of 4 percent, $1,400 would be generated each year. This amount would be divided evenly between the fall and spring semesters and awarded to a student. Scholarships can be named for more than one individual or group and can be named in honor or memory of a family member, a beloved professor or other individual or group. These funds will be designated for your named scholarship fund. The fund must earn investment income for one calendar year before it will be awarded.

2. Establish an annual named scholarship

An annual named scholarship can be created with a minimum gift of $3,000 per year for at least five years. The scholarship will be divided between the fall and spring semesters and awarded to a student at a level determined by the donor. Scholarships can be named for more than one individual or group and can be named in honor or memory of a family member, a beloved professor or other individual or group. These funds will be designated for your named scholarship fund.

3. Contribute to an existing scholarship fund

The gift would be added to the existing fund and would increase the principal, which would then increase the amount issued on an annual basis in accordance with the scholarship selection criteria.
