- e) Bill No. 14- Readership Increase and Redistribution- Secretary Zambrana informed the body that a three year contract with the Readership Program was negotiated and is still in effect, and thus this bill is no longer applicable. She moved to table indefinitely. Vice-President Jones seconded. The motion carried with a unanimous vote.

- f) Campus Standing Committees- Lyddy expressed a wish to sit on the college Wellness Committee due to her involvement in Phi Theta Kappa Honors Society. President DuBois approved this request and informed the body that she has also appointed Secretary Zambrana to sit on the Academic Appeals Committee and Representative Nye to sit on the Buildings and Grounds Committee.
- g) Legislative Branch Chair- Representative Campbell respectfully denied the nomination due to his past experience with the position and his belief that student government should be a developmental body. Secretary Zambrana nominated Representative Collins for the position.

VI. New Business:

- a) College Displays- Crowley expressed interest in supplying HACC with renovated display boards featuring back-lit digital advertising. Crowley informed the body that each display board would be provided at no cost to SGA and that after the first year each would produce approximately $200 in revenue for the school at a commission rate of 10%.
- b) HAMEC- Representatives from the prospective club expressed their desire to get the technological community of HACC involved in events, and to provide free equipment for use by events on campus. President DuBois called for a motion to approve their constitution and recognize them as a club. Representative Campbell motioned to approve and Representative Reed seconded. The motion carried with a unanimous vote.
- c) Midtown Involvement- President DuBois said that volunteers are needed to serve at the Midtown Fall Free-4-All event and asked anyone interested in this opportunity to please see her after adjournment.
- d) Fall Elections- President DuBois said plans need to be made for fall elections and that the PR committee will head this event.
- e) College-Wide Committees- President DuBois asked anyone interested in serving on these committees to please see her after the meeting.
- f) Resignation of Office- President DuBois said that Representative Keener has resigned from office due to an inability to make the time commitment.
- h) Bill No. 17- Campbell explained why he should be Treasurer. Representative Reed motioned to approve and Representative Robillard seconded. The bill passed with a unanimous vote.

VIII. Adjournment:
