

Polysomnography Admission Criteria – Fall 2009

Space is limited. Admission to the college does not guarantee admission to the program.

Minimum Criteria to Apply:

The following applicants will be considered for admission into the Polysomnography Tech Program:

- Applicants must be currently employed in a sleep lab or facility.
- Applicants must be at least 18 years of age.
- High school diploma or GED is required.
- Applicants should have familiarity with Windows based software.
- Criminal Background Checks and drug/alcohol screenings are not required for the program but may be required to maintain employment in the healthcare field.

Class Dates: To be announced – awaiting A-STEP Introductory Accreditation

Application Deadline: To be announced – awaiting A-STEP Introductory Accreditation

Information Session: To be announced – awaiting A-STEP Introductory Accreditation
