

Need help paying for college? HACC can provide answers

Free financial aid sessions offered Feb. 21 at each HACC campus

It's not too late to get financial aid to help pay for your college education; find out how from HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College.

From 6-7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 21, 2013, the public is invited to attend a free financial seminar at one of HACC's five campuses in Gettysburg, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Lebanon and York. The seminars are open to anyone, not just students coming to HACC.

York Campus: Glatfelter Community Room

Lebanon Campus: Multipurpose Room - 105

Gettysburg Campus: The Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Lancaster Campus: Main Building –Room 222

Harrisburg Campus: The International Room, Cooper Building

HACC professionals have teamed up to answer all of your questions about the college financial aid process. Attendees will learn about:

- Different types of aid, including scholarships, grants, loans and employment opportunities
- Where to look for other sources of aid and what pitfalls to avoid
- How to compare financial aid offers from different schools and pick what is best for your needs
- How to fill out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form and how to file it online
- Changes that have been made to the FAFSA form

Registration is not required but recommended.
