BACKGROUND

In addition to advertisement, ninety (90) vendors were solicited and sixteen (16) teams submitted proposals that were evaluated and ranked using a scoring matrix. It was decided that the top four (4) teams would be interviewed based on qualifications and project plan. The evaluation committee selected the master planning team led by JMZ Architects & Planners based on qualifications, project plan, cost, team understanding of higher education master planning issues, communication skills, and chemistry with the master planning committee.
