Vendor	Amount
Q-Nomy, Inc. New York, NY	$33,580.00

BACKGROUND

In addition to advertisement, five (5) vendors were solicited. Six (6) vendors submitted a proposal. The student queuing system will improve the registration process and lessen the waiting time for students. This system is a ticket based solution and mechanism which will notify students that a HACC representative is available. During the waiting period, students may wait in another room or area of the Cooper Student Center without the fear of losing their place. Q-Nomy, Inc. is recommended based on their high technical scores, demonstration, and cost.
