PROGRAM SPECIFICS

Wilson College has a dual admission agreement with HACC. Dual Admission gives the HACC student guidance from a Wilson counselor throughout their studies at HACC; their transcript is sent to Wilson at the end of each semester at HACC, allowing Wilson to keep track of how they are doing; and if they transfer with 16 or more courses, they can register for classes with Junior status without waiting for open registration. All students are able to major in all of Wilson's programs--there is no distinction between CFW (College for Women) and ADP classes or programs.

NOTES

Wilson does not require a specific major from HACC for transfer. However, the closer the HACC major to the Wilson major, the more credits can be used for required courses.
