PREAMBLE
We, the students of the HACC, Central Pennsylvania’s Community College, in order to best serve our diverse student population, do hereby, establish and ordain a student government structure in which each campus provides representation for all students at the respective campuses. The student government is elected to promote the educational and social development of the students, to facilitate the functioning and activities of student organizations, and to enhance student life at the College through participation and leadership in the student activities program. The student government will also adhere to and participate within the shared governance structure at the College to ensure the student rights and responsibilities in and outside of the classroom. This Constitution shall be the source of policy for the Student Government bylaws and other Student Government Association documents.

Article I: Name
The name of this governance structure at HACC, Central PA’s Community College, (hereafter known as “HACC” or “the college”) shall be known as the Student Government Association (hereafter known as SGA).

Article II: Purpose of the Student Government Association
It shall be the purpose of the SGA to ensure equal representation for students and to provide a unified college-wide voice for all HACC campuses. The SGA campus representatives will be responsible to oversee and provide organizational support to all other student groups on their respective campuses, and to support student life in a way that promotes the diversity and development of all students. These SGA campus unions shall be known as SGA, (campus name)

Article III: Student Government Association Campus
Each recognized campus of HACC shall establish and maintain an SGA. For the purposes of this constitution, it should be noted that the word “campus” includes any physical campuses of HACC and the Virtual Learning Student Advisory Council (VLSAC), which represents the HACC virtual student population.

Section I – Purpose of SGA:
The purpose of the SGA is to provide a campus voice for the students in all matters of concern within and between campus constituency groups, as well as performing all powers and duties defined within this article.
Section 2 – Qualifications of SGA Members:

A. All SGA members must be current students, enrolled at the college at the time of election or appointment, and remain enrolled continuously throughout the term.

B. The Executive Branch members must maintain a 2.5 cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) unless they are a first term member.

C. Legislative Branch members must maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA unless they are a first term student.

D. All SGA members shall carry a minimum of six (6) credits during any semester in which the office is held, three (3) of which must be at the campus they are serving on.

E. SGA members cannot serve simultaneously on more than one campus SGA.

F. SGA members are subject to college rules and regulations found in the Student Handbook and in HACC online resources. Students found in violation of the code of conduct within the current or previous two (2) semesters cannot hold executive or legislative positions within SGA.

G. Members who fail to maintain the minimum requirements are required to resign.

H. Executive Branch members must have completed one (1) semester at HACC (fall or spring) or receive an exemption from the SGA advisor in order to be eligible.

I. The above minimum requirements can be increased as per by campus bylaws, but may not be decreased.

Section 3 – Membership:

A. There shall be four SGA Executive Branch members: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary.

B. The President and Senators shall be elected by the student body in the general elections as specified in Article V.

C. If vacancies of offices remain or occur after elections, the respective campus bylaws will determine how vacancies will be filled.

D. The length of a member’s term in office shall be no more than one academic year, which ends at spring commencement.

E. Upon conclusion of a member’s term of office, the member may run for elected office again, provided the member meets all required qualifications stipulated in Article III, Section 2.

Section 4 – Powers and Duties of Members:

A. Represent the student population on all campus matters affecting students.

B. Shall attend all SGA meetings as per requirements set forth in campus bylaws.

C. Shall interpret the constitution, the respective campus bylaws and have a working knowledge of Robert’s Rules of Order.
Section 5 – Powers and Duties of the Legislative Branch Chair:
   A. Legislative Branch Chair cannot be an Executive Board Member.
   B. Shall serve as the parliamentarian with voting rights for all Legislative Branch meetings.
   C. Shall actively help organize and participate in all Legislative Branch trainings.
   D. Oversee Legislative Branch member recruitment as needed.
   E. Shall act as the voice of the Legislative Branch to the Executive Branch.

Sub-Section 1 – Authority to Act by Campus SGAs:
   A. Each campus SGA will establish the quorum required in order for the SGA to hold an official meeting. The requirement for quorum is defined in each campus’ bylaws.
   B. The Legislative Branch may take official action only during regularly scheduled meetings of the SGA or special meetings called for urgent or emergency purposes.
   C. Unless specified elsewhere, a simple majority (51%) is required for SGAs to take legislative action.

Section 6 – SGA Powers and Duties of the Executive Branch:

Sub-Section 1 – Powers and Duties Shared by Executive Branch Members:
   A. Members of the Executive Branch must log office hours as defined within each campus bylaws.
   B. Be able to interpret the SGA Constitution, campus bylaws, procedures outlined in the College Policies and Administrative Procedures, as well as Robert’s Rules of Order.
   C. Assist in recruiting qualified students to fill vacant Executive and Legislative Branch member positions.
   D. Attend regular meetings with the SGA Campus Advisor as stipulated in campus bylaws.
   E. The four Executive Branch members shall meet regularly, as stipulated in campus bylaws.
   F. Shall plan and set an agenda for each regularly scheduled SGA legislative meeting and communicate with the SGA Secretary for its publication.
   G. Collaborate with the student life professional staff on the fall collegewide student leader retreat.
Sub-Section 2 – Powers and Duties of the SGA President:
The President shall be elected by the student population during the spring election. The President shall have the following powers and duties:

A. Call to order weekly Executive Branch meetings.
B. Preside over SGA legislative meetings and vote only in case of a tie.
C. Participate in the orientation of all members of the Legislative Branch with respect to their duties and responsibilities, and swear in all Legislative and Executive Branch members.
D. Appoint, with the approval of the Legislative Branch, SGA members to chair committees.
E. Approve, in the absence of the Treasurer, all SGA financial documents.
F. Responsible for enacting all approved Legislative action.
G. May veto any vote passed by the legislature. This veto shall be communicated in a formal letter to every SGA member within one (1) week of the vote’s passage. The letter must contain the reasons for the veto and suggestions for a revised or substitute action. A vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Legislative Branch shall be required to override the veto. Should the veto be overridden, the bill shall stand and the President shall support it.

Sub-Section 3 – Powers and Duties of the SGA Vice President:
All Vice-President candidates shall be members of the Legislative Branch in order to be recommended by the President with approval by the Legislative Branch. The Vice-President should be appointed before the end of the spring semester. The Vice-President shall have the following powers and duties:

A. Attend and vote in regular SGA meetings.
B. In absence of the President the Vice-President shall call to order and preside over SGA meetings and vote only in case of a tie.
C. Receive reports and forms from clubs and organizations.
D. Maintain an organized and professional work environment for all clubs and organizations.
E. Maintain club records.
F. Assist with training of new club officers.
G. Assist with the paperwork of newly created clubs.
H. Upon approval of the Legislative Branch, shall recommend to the appropriate administration, recognition of any student clubs and organizations meeting the requirements.
Sub-Section 4 – Powers and Duties of the SGA Treasurer:
All Treasurer candidates shall be members of the Legislative Branch in order to be recommended by the President with approval by the Legislative Branch. The Treasurer should be appointed before the end of the spring semester. The Treasurer shall have the following powers and duties:

A. Attend and vote in regular SGA meetings.

F. Approve SGA financial documents and transactions.

Sub-Section 5 – Powers and Duties of the SGA Secretary:
All Secretary candidates shall be members of the Legislative Branch in order to be recommended by the President with approval by the Legislative Branch. The Secretary should be appointed before the end of the spring semester. The Secretary shall have the following powers and duties:

A. Attend and vote in regular SGA meetings.
B. In the absence of all other officers, the Secretary shall call to order and preside over SGA meetings, and shall vote only in the case of a tie.
C. Shall be responsible for accurate recording, publishing, distributing, and preserving all Legislative Branch books and documents.
D. Call roll and report violations of the attendance policy to the SGA Ethics Committee. In absence of an Ethics Committee, the Secretary shall report all violations of the attendance policy to the SGA President and SGA Advisor.

Section 7 – Standing and Ad-Hoc Committees:
The SGA President may appoint an SGA member as the Chair of any committee. Appointments are approved by SGA by a simple majority (51%) vote. Members of the committees may include SGA members and members of the student body. The committees include but are not limited to:

Sub-Section 1 – Ethics Committee:
The Ethics committee is charged with determining that the provisions of the constitution are adhered to by all SGA members and with the proper handling of violations as they might occur. Responsibilities include making recommendations of appropriate actions for such violations.

A. The Ethics Chair shall not be a member of the Executive Branch, except in the absence of an Ethics Committee.

B. Persons having concern(s) about a member of SGA should place their concern(s) in writing and submit them to the Ethics Chair, or SGA Advisor in the absence of an Ethics Chair, who must follow up with the Ethics Committee.

C. The committee must acknowledge the concerns and begin an investigation within five (5) business days of receipt of the written concerns.

D. If the member of concern is a member of the campus Ethics Committee, or in the absence of a campus Ethics Committee, the venue for resolution will move to the SGA Executive Council (SGAEC).
   i. Ethics Committee matters brought before SGAEC should be resolved within ten (10) business days.
   ii. SGAEC should coordinate with the member of concern to schedule the investigation and hearing as soon as possible.
   iii. SGAEC parties will receive one (1) vote each; with the member of concern’s campus abstaining from the vote. A majority vote of those campuses present will be required for action.
   iv. The decision of the SGAEC hearing will be communicated to the member of concern and their respective SGA Advisor by the SGAEC Advisor.

E. Ethics Committee Response Procedure:
   i. The Ethics committee, upon having gathered all information pertinent to the case, shall by a majority vote, recommend to the Legislative Branch the appropriate course of action.
   ii. The recommendation shall be presented to the Legislative Branch for approval or rejection. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the currently eligible voting members shall be sufficient to institute the recommendation of the Ethics Committee.

F. The Ethics Committee may act as the Elections Committee as needed.

Subsection 2 – Reconsideration and Recall
A. The Legislature must reconsider any appointments and legislation upon receiving a petition for reconsideration signed by 2.5% of the campus student population. Such petition must be delivered to the campus SGA Advisor by the petition originator. Reconsideration will be granted with a two thirds (2/3) vote by the Legislative Branch.
B. All Legislative and Executive Branch members can be subject to recall, but not within their first three (3) weeks in office.
C. To recall the subject in question, a two thirds (2/3) majority vote is needed by the Legislative Branch.

Article IV: Student Government Association Executive Council (SGAEC)

In an effort to provide HACC with the student voice in college-wide decisions, the SGA Campuses agree to a college-wide SGA, empowering a representation of the students’ voice across all campuses. The SGA Executive Council (SGAEC) is a union of the SGA campuses who provide executive campus representation. Within this union, the Presidents of each campus and another elected SGA member are gathered to represent the student governance structure in college-wide affairs.

Section 1 – Purpose of SGAEC:

It shall be the purpose of the SGAEC to ensure representation on the college-wide level in matters dealing with the shared governance structure at HACC. SGAEC will coordinate with college- wide leadership (President’s Cabinet), the Faculty Organization (FO), the Administrative Professional Organization (APO), and the Classified Employee’s Organization (CEO) to maintain open communication among constituencies. It shall also be a function of the SGAEC to provide student representatives to serve on all college-wide committees, task forces and appeal forums.

Section 2 – SGAEC Membership:

The SGAEC will consist of all SGA Campus Presidents or designee, and one (1) other student representative selected from each campus, serving as official voting members. In the case that a campus does not have a President, the campus SGA Vice President will serve. An SGA Campus approved representative shall serve as an additional voting member for each campus to provide additional input for each campus. SGAEC meetings will be open to all members of SGA Campuses to attend and participate in a non-voting capacity.

Section 3 – Powers and Duties of Presidents and other Members:

All members must be currently serving members of their respective campus SGAs and must adhere to the following:

Sub-Section 1 – Powers and Duties of the All SGAEC Members:

A. Shall attend all SGAEC meetings and events.
B. Shall work together to self-govern and support one another, to present college-wide initiatives, and to create a unified student voice that accurately represents the student population at HACC.

C. Shall be responsible for ensuring that their campus’s view and opinions on all matters are presented in SGAEC and results of discussed matters are brought back and communicated to the respective campus constituency.

Section 4 – Powers and Duties of SGAEC Leadership:
The leadership of SGAEC shall be the Executive Chair, the Vice-Executive Chair, the Executive Secretary, the Shared Governance Policy Chair, Representative to the Shared Governance Committee, and Chair of College-wide Committees. These positions will be elected by a majority vote of the incoming SGAEC members of each campus during the last meeting of the academic year or when a position becomes vacant.

Sub-Section 1 – Powers and Duties of the SGAEC Executive Chair:
A. Shall preside over all scheduled meetings.
B. Shall establish the rules in which the SGAEC will self-govern during the meetings.
C. Shall plan a detailed agenda for all SGAEC meetings.
D. Shall attend the College Board of Trustees meetings.
E. Shall meet on a monthly basis with the President of the College.
F. Shall oversee an annual review of the constitution.
G. Shall facilitate communication between all other campus student representatives and the SGAEC Advisor.

Sub-Section 2 – Powers and Duties of the SGAEC Executive Vice-Chair:
A. In the absence of the Executive Chair, the Executive Vice-Chair shall assume and/or delegate all aforementioned responsibilities.
B. Shall be responsible to attend all Faculty Organization meetings.
C. Assist the Executive Chair in any and all powers and duties.

Sub-Section 3 – Powers and Duties of the SGAEC Executive Secretary:
A. In the absence of the Executive Chair and the Vice-Executive Chair, the Executive Secretary shall assume and/or delegate all aforementioned responsibilities.
B. Record, publish, distribute, and preserve all SGAEC minutes and agendas.
C. Shall ensure minutes and agendas are distributed to the other members of the shared governance organizations.
D. Shall attend all Classified Employee Organization (CEO) meetings.
Sub-Section 4 – Powers and Duties of the Shared Governance Policy Chair:

A. In the absence of the Executive Chair, the Vice-Executive Chair, and the Executive Secretary, the Shared Governance Policy (SGP) Chair shall assume and/or delegate all aforementioned responsibilities.
B. Will come from a different campus than the Representative to the Shared Governance Committee.
C. Shall be a member of the College-wide SGP Committee and report to SGAEC at every meeting the status of all decisions up for discussion.
D. Shall plan training for all incoming SGAEC members.
E. Shall attend all Administrative Professional Organization (APO) meetings.

Sub-Section 5 – Powers and Duties of the Representative to the Shared Governance Committee:

A. Will come from a different campus than the Shared Governance Policy Chair.
B. Shall be a member of the College-wide SGP Committee.

Sub-Section 6 – Powers and Duties of the SGAEC College-wide Committees Chair:

A. The Chair will be responsible for obtaining the names of students interested in serving on college committees.
B. The Chair will assign students, based upon their interests, to vacant student seats on any college committee with open student representation.
C. The assignments to College-wide committees should be completed by October 1 (fall) and March 1 (spring).
D. The completed roster of students assigned to College-wide committees will be provided to the SGAEC Advisor.
E. Communicate with all other SGAEC members the committee and task force seats needed to be filled, and the qualifications the student should have in order to fill the seat.
F. Shall keep appropriate records with contact information on each student that SGAEC appoints to a college-wide committee seat, and initiate follow up conversations to ensure the appointee is fulfilling their duties.

Section 5 – Meeting Guidelines for SGAEC:

A. SGAEC shall meet a minimum of four (4) times during both the fall and spring semesters as determined by mutual agreement of the members of the SGAEC at the last meeting of the preceding semester.

B. Quorum will be established when seven (7) of the twelve (12) SGAEC members are present, three (3) of which serve in leadership positions as detailed in Article IV, Section 4.
C. Voting shall take place during the SGAEC meetings. If an urgent matter arises outside of normal meeting times, voting shall take place in an emergency session in a format to be agreed upon by SGAEC.

Section 6 – College-wide Committees and Task Forces:

A. The Executive Chair will appoint a chair of any and all SGAEC ad-hoc committees. The SGAEC will vote on all appointments made by the chair with a simple majority (51%) needed to pass.

B. The Representative to the Shared Governance Committee will appoint all members of their committee from any interested students.

Sub-Section 1 – Powers and Duties of the Student Representatives Serving on College-wide Committees:

A. Should adhere to the same academic and behavioral standards set for SGA members as described in Article III, Section 2.

B. Members will update their status to the College-wide Committee Chair. This will include a confirmation of attendance to all meetings, and any and all issues that should be referred for discussion by the SGAEC.

Article V: Elections

All currently enrolled students are eligible to vote in SGA elections at any and all HACC campuses in which they are enrolled. All students who meet the qualifications in Section 1 are eligible to apply for a place on the ballot. Newly elected members shall be expected to attend leadership training, as detailed in the campus bylaws and approved by the campus SGA Advisor. Term of office for all SGA members ends at Spring Commencement. The campus SGA Elections Committee, (or in cases where a campus does not have a functioning Elections Committee the Ethics Committee) shall rule in matters where election guidelines are in dispute. Candidates may appeal decisions to the SGA Ethics Committee or the campus SGA Advisor.

Section 1- Qualifications

A. At the discretion of the SGA Advisor, applications can be certified for candidacy to meet current SGA election standards and guidelines.

B. Candidates must maintain the academic standards in accordance with Article III for current members in that position.

C. Candidates must be in ‘good conduct’ standing with the college.

D. Additional guidelines may be stipulated in campus bylaws.

Section 2- Spring Elections

A. Spring elections shall be held after spring break, and before finals week. The President and senator positions are eligible for election.
i. The President-Elect may recommend for appointment, a member of the newly elected Legislative Branch for any unfilled Executive Board positions following the spring election.

B. The Executive Board should be sworn in no later than the Spring Commencement of the same year.

C. Outgoing Executive and Legislative Branch chair members relinquish all powers, duties, and their vote after the end of the spring term.

Section 3 - Fall Elections
A. Shall be held by the end of the month of September.
B. All eligible vacant positions shall be on the ballot at this time.

Section 4- Succession
A. The succession hierarchy is as follows: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary.
B. If there is a vacancy in the Executive Board, an elected Executive Board member may move up the presiding hierarchy to fill that role. If the member declines, and the President is unable to appoint an eligible senator to the vacancy, the following will apply:
   i. An eligible member of the campus student body may be recommended for appointment by the SGA members.
   ii. The open position would require a special election.

Section 5- Special Elections
A. Special elections may be administered by the Elections Committee, or in the absence of one, the campus Ethics Committee.
B. Special elections can be held in the event of a vacant position.

Article VI: Appropriation Authority

Section 1 – Funds:
The SGAs shall be allocated their respective student activity fee revenue.
A. Projected revenue allocations to the SGA shall be periodically reviewed and may be altered, based on campus enrollment patterns. Allocations to student organizations may consequently be altered.
B. The combined budget of the SGA shall not exceed projected revenue as determined by the campus Dean or designee.
C. Funds allocated to the SGA may be used for educational, cultural, civic, and entertainment activities within the parameters established by the approved SGA budget guidelines and college regulations. Any process adopted by a student government or other campus entities to provide support to recognized student clubs and organizations must employ solely viewpoint-neutral criteria.

D. The criteria for evaluation of funding requests are as follows (fulfillments of the following does not guarantee approval for funding):
   1. Providing a service to the student population.
   2. Fostering a sense of community on campus.
   3. Quality and quantity of programs and services provided to the student population, consistent with the mission of the club or organization.
   4. Extent of and demand for the programs and services provided.
   5. Breadth of service to student across academic departments or academic units.
   6. Targeting of programs and services to the largest number of students consistent with the need.
   7. Efforts to secure funding in addition to the student activity fees.
   8. Demonstration of financial need that cannot be fulfilled with alternative sources of income.

E. Funds may not be used for activities wherein the purpose of promotion or advancement of partisan political or religious interests.

F. Use of student activity fee funding to supplant college operational funding is prohibited.

G. The SGA shall determine and approve budget allocations to all student clubs and organizations that have applied and were accepted for funding. Denials of funding may be appealed to the campus student affairs leader.

H. Balances of allocated funds remaining at the end of an academic year shall be deposited to a reserve account (hereafter known as SAR Fund) made in the direct interest of the student body as approved by the legislature and the Campus as stipulated by AP 474.

Section 2 – SGA Budget:
   A. The SGA Advisor shall supervise the budgeting and expenditure of all student activity funds.
   B. All Officers and Advisors shall be informed annually of college financial procedures.

Article VII- Student Clubs & Organizations:

Student activities may include a variety of student clubs and organizations which provide an opportunity for students to become actively involved in college community life. A wide variety of interests may be represented by student clubs and organizations which are active in each academic year. Student groups are encouraged to organize and plan their own programs. A college faculty or staff member who has special interest in a group should serve as an advisor to the group. General supervision of the student groups’ activities is given to the Student Government Association.
Section 1 – Procedures of Recognition:
Any student currently enrolled in the college may request permission from the SGA Office or SGA Advisor to hold a special meeting at the college for the purpose of informing interested students about a proposed club or organization. Subsequent meetings of the group must be scheduled in the same manner and be publicized as organizational meetings. A student organization will become recognized if:

A. The interested students complete an official application for recognition.
B. The students obtain an advisor from the college staff.
C. The club/organization submits a proposed club constitution to SGA for approval. If there are changes made in the future, these must also be approved by SGA.
D. The application for recognition, a proposed constitution, and the list of members of the organization is submitted to the SGA and to the campus student affairs leader (or designee) for approval or denial.
E. In the case of denial, the prospective club member may appeal to the SGA within ten (10) working days by submitting their request in writing to the campus SGA Advisor.

Section 2 – Privileges of College Recognition:

A. The use of College facilities is free during regular college hours upon approval.
B. The right to request funds from SGA.
C. The right to establish dues and sponsor activities as approved by the SGA Advisor or designee.
D. The right to establish regular meeting times and use of space on campus.

Section 3 – Revocation of Recognition:
The SGA or college may revoke privileges and/or recognition of a HACC approved club and/or organization. Clubs and or organizations may have their status revoked for the following reasons:

A. Evidence of failure to comply with college regulations and procedures governing recognized organizations.
B. Evidence that the club/organization is neglecting its constitutional objectives.
C. Violations of the campus or organizational bylaws.

Section 4 – If Revocation Occurs:

A. A club or organization which has been revoked may no longer use the name of HACC, nor hold activities on college owned or leased property.
B. When revocation occurs, funds accrued in the account and/or assets of a club or organization will be returned to SGA control.
C. A student club or organization which has had its recognition revoked must follow the complete application process to become recognized again.

Section 5 – Responsibilities of Club/Organization Advisors:
At the beginning of each year, the student club or organization will submit a valid advisor form to the SGA Vice-President concerning the club advisor’s willingness to assume the following responsibilities:
A. The club or organization’s advisor will ensure that the activities of the club or organization follow the policies and regulations of the College. The club advisor and campus SGA Advisor must sign all official forms of the club or organization.
B. The club advisor will be concerned with the stated purpose of the club or organization and will consult regularly with the club or organization members about the programs, plans, and problems of the group.
C. Regular attendance of the advisor at the meeting of the club or organization is recommended.

Section 6 – Scheduled Activities and Facilities Reservations:
A. The SGA Advisor of the campus or his/her designee must approve all college student activities. Clubs or organizations planning activities must secure an approval form from the SGA. The SGA and the SGA Advisor must approve the completed form before details of the activity can be publicized.
B. Only the Office of Student Life may schedule and approve events during the final exam period of any semester.

Section 7 – Student Activity Field Trips:
A. A student club or organization may sponsor a field trip that is approved by the Office of Student Life.
B. If classes are to be missed, participating students are responsible for notifying their instructor before attending the trip.
C. Students are expected to follow HACC procedures and guidelines and other prior agreements pertaining to behavior on trips, as well as abiding by any laws and regulations of the area visited.
D. A complete list of those traveling must be given to the campus SGA Advisor within 5 days of the trip.

Article VIII: Amendments, Revisions and Referenda
A. Each campus SGA legislature shall issue bylaws, which shall govern the daily proceedings and operations of the SGA.
B. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote by the Legislature shall be required to amend the Bylaws.
C. The Constitution shall take precedence over the Bylaws in all circumstances. If the Bylaws conflict with the Constitution, the Constitution will be followed.
D. Proposed amendments to this Constitution referendum shall be presented in writing to the SGA Executive Council (SGAEC).
E. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote by the SGAEC shall be required to present these amendments to the entire student population.
F. Ratification shall occur by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote approval of the student population that votes in the spring or fall election.

G. All amendments to this Constitution shall be put in sections of this document, entitled “Amendments”; each numbered and dated according to the date of acceptance.
