Enjoy the beauty and history of the United Kingdom!

Examine the historical development procedures of the English criminal justice system and its relationship to the U.S. criminal justice system. Visits to historical sites including Parliament, Inns of Court, Scotland Yard, Old Bailey and the Tower of London, and on-site lectures by experienced police, court and prison personnel give a thorough and valuable insight into the English justice system and security procedures. New to the course is an overnight excursion to Edinburgh, Scotland via train to visit various Scottish criminal justice and historical sites.
