If the pieces are tied in quantities other than 50 each, the actual number must be shown on the facing slip. The bundles must be secured in such a manner that bundles are not broken and facing slips are secure in post office handling. The Postal Service will not accept broken bundles.
If the printer desires to pallet the mailing for delivery to the Postal Service, the printer is responsible for following the regulations as outlined in section M045 of the Domestic Mail Manual of the Postal Service.

If the above regulations are not followed, the Postal Service may reject the mail. If a mailing is rejected by the Postal Service, the printer will be required to repair all errors to bring the mailing into compliance with Postal Service regulations.

BIDS:

10-05 FY10 MAILERS AND POSTCARDS

BIDDERS ARE TO SUBMIT GRAND TOTAL PRICING (TOTAL 9 DOLLAR FIGURES) ON LINE (www.procurexinc.com) ON THE DAY OF THE REVERSE AUCTION.

At the END of the Reverse Auction, all bidders will be required to submit the below information to show the cost breakdown for each element of the bid.

PLEASE DO NOT EMAIL OR FAX PRICING UNTIL AFTER THE REVERSE PRICING – IT WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

The Mailer and Postcards will be purchased at different times in fiscal year 2010 as outlined in this Request for Bid. Quantities may vary from the projected quantities referenced in this Request for Bid. The Bidders should structure their proposals for the Mailer and Postcards for the total amount detailed in this Request for Bid at today’s prices.

HACC, Central Pennsylvania’s Community College recognizes the volatility of the paper market. Because of this volatility, the Bidders discounts offered in this bid will remain the same for any variation in quantities for the duration of the Contract, regardless of the manufacturer’s increase or decrease. Note: The winning Bidder will be required to supply HACC the list price of paper, along with the discount structure that was used to calculate the paper price. This discount structure will be the basis for future magazine releases if and when the manufacturer should increase or decrease their list price.

Requested increases in pricing must be submitted in writing to the Central Administration Procurement Department at least thirty (30) days prior to their effective date and accompanied by justification for the increase. Decreases must be passed on immediately. It is expected that the Bidder awarded this business will be required to monitor competitive pricing on a continual basis and pass along decreases when appropriate.
