12:00 p.m. - 12:45 p.m.

Objective

In light of National LGBTQ+ History Month, we'll discuss the history of National Coming Out Day leading up to the present. We'll also discuss how things have changed in the LGBTQ+ community and how we can all take collective action for LGBTQ+ Liberation.

Ricardo Almovodar

Ricardo is a strong community and social justice activist with a demonstrated history of working for change particularly focused in LGBTQ+ and Latinx communities. He has a background in community organizing and Spanish language with years of electoral and political engagement. He is also a HACC and MU alumni, former president of CALOR, president of Allies, member of the Environmental Science Club, and SGA Senator. He currently serves on the board of the Lancaster LGBTQ+ Coalition and is an Organizer with We The People (WTP), a campaign of the PA Budget and Policy Center (PBPC) a non-partisan effort for progressive politics and an equitable state budget across the commonwealth.
