NOAH RUFUS ABBY

My name is Noah Rufus Abby, I am the vice president of the Harrisburg Campus of HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College.

So the fund for excellence for the Harrisburg Campus will serve as a catalyst for change across a wide variety of initiatives.

[Cut to footage of the exterior of the library building] and finally the honors seminar lounge and special honors space for our vibrant honors scholastic programs on campus.

So the learning commons space will kind of be an innovative project

[Cut to photo of student using a table in the library]

into the 21st century for the, for our students on campus today.

So the fund for excellence at the Harrisburg campus has a second initiative of helping address food insecurity for our students.

[Cut to NOAH RUFUS ABBY sitting at table, speaking]

So this at its most basic level is helping to satisfy one of our all of our basic human needs for good food and nutrition.

The final initiative that we've outlined

[Cut to footage of honors students smiling in class]

is an honors seminar and lounge room.

[Cut to four honors students working together]

And so we really want to create a place that is customized for them

[Cut to an honors instructor speaking to a class]

NOAH RUFUS ABBY VO

to have engaged speakers for seminars

[Cut to honors students working together in class and interacting with their instructor]

on a variety of topics pertinent to the curriculum
