[Fade to instructor in office]

ALFRED SIHA, D.ED., Assistant Professor of English

I believe that education literally changes lives and the best way to do that is to open the doors to as many people as possible.

[Cut to student in classroom]

STARSON AUDATE, HACC Business Administration Major

One thing that I like about is the diversity.

[Cut to faculty in office]

KATHLEEN BYRNE HEIDECKER, M.L.S., Reference/Instruction Librarian

You can see people like you in each of your classes.

[Cut to instructor in classroom]

BRENDA C. EPPLEY, MFA, Professor of Theatre

Typically our class sizes are quite small.

[Cut to instructor in classroom]

Our faculty know our students' names, we know their stories, we know who they are.

[Cut to instructor in classroom]

SARA CRILL, R.T. (R) (ARRT), Director of Clinical Education, Instructor for Radiologic Technology

If you need help in this place all you have to do is ask, and a lot of times if they see you need help, you don't even have to ask.

SARA

And I don't think you see that elsewhere.

[Cut to TAMMY in classroom]

TAMMY

I've taught classes at seven in the morning and I've taught classes at 8 o'clock at night. We also have a lot of classes that are blended or that can be done completely online.

[Cut to BRENDA in classroom]

BRENDA

The cost-saving factor is tremendous.

You're not going to get a better deal. You're getting quality faculty, a quality education, at a much better price.
