[Fade in upbeat music]

PASCAL FLORIVAL, ESL Graduate
If I have to describe ESL classes in one word,

[Text fades up on screen]
English as a Second Language

PASCAL
I would say awesome.

[Cut to ANNE sitting in front of curtain]

ANNE KELLIHER, ESL Faculty Member
HACC has a state-of-the-art program that combines all of the skills that are necessary to learn English.

like survival English, the alphabet, numbers and then it progresses to a second level, which is a low intermediate and then to a high intermediate and then a more advanced level.

[Cut to JEANNETTE speaking]

JEANNETTE
You meet a lot of people around the country and they are very friendly.

[Cut to ANNE speaking]

ANNE
This semester I counted seven different language groups in one classroom.

ANNE VO
We welcome students from all over the world, we have international students, we have students that are immigrants and we also have students who are refugees, and they all come into our classroom with the sole purpose and improving their English.

[Cut to EVELIN speaking]

EVELIN
And the instructors are very knowledgeable.

[Cut to JEANNETTE speaking]

JEANNETTE
The professors are so nice, they are very kind, friendly and there for you.

[Cut to LISETTE speaking]

LISETTE
If you come to HACC, you’re gonna learn better because here they have the best teachers.
[Cut to NHI speaking]

NHI
They are really great.

[Cut to PASCAL speaking]

PASCAL
And they are willing to help and they care about their students.

[Cut to VERLE speaking]

VERLE
The professors, they’re always there to help.

[Cut to YINHE sitting in front of curtain]

YINHE LIU, ESL Graduate
This class is really good for you if you want to improve your communication skills and writing skills.

[Cut to JEANNETTE speaking]

JEANNETTE
You are going to improve your English very fast.
