

Build YOUR Skills to Become an American Heart Association (AHA) Instructor!

Take HACC's AHA Instructor Essentials class to teach in schools, gyms, community centers and more!

Through online learning and one classroom session, HACC will:

- Prepare you to teach AHA instructor-led and blended-learning course formats
- Educate you on using teaching materials, student-coaching skills, objective skills performance evaluation and AHA instructor and course policies

The American Heart Association strongly promotes knowledge and proficiency in all AHA courses and has developed instructional materials for this purpose. Use of these materials in an educational course does not represent course sponsorship by the AHA. Any fees charged for such a course, except for a portion of fees needed for AHA course materials, do not represent income to the AHA.
