BACKGROUND

In addition to advertisement, eight (8) vendors were solicited. One (1) vendor submitted a proposal. With the closing of the Wildwood Conference Center, a conference center site was needed to host the 2013 Homeland Security Conference being held in March 2013. It has been determined by the evaluation team that The Conference Center at Central Penn College is fully capable of hosting the conference. The price proposed is reasonable based on previous years cost. The South Central Regional Task Force will refund the cost of the conference plus administrative fees.
