

Subject: HACC cares for you and your family – here and abroad!
Date: Wednesday, July 29, 2020 5:18:50 PM

Greetings, HACC international students!

We understand that times look different right now and can be frightening. You may be far from home and apart from loved ones. Or, you may be abroad and currently unable to return to the Central Pennsylvania area.

HACC cares for you and your family – here and abroad!

Please visit this webpage to learn more about the College's decisions for the fall 2020 semester. These decisions were made while keeping your safety and well-being in mind. We also want to support your emotional well-being. HACC's International Student Office can help you access the support services available at HACC.

If you are experiencing stress, anxiety, depression, family-related issues or other challenges, professional counseling services are available. Please call 1-800-543-5080 or visit mseap.com. Please see this flyer for details.

Please email internationalstudent@hacc.edu if you have additional questions.

Thank you for choosing HACC for your educational journey! You are an important part of our community, and it is made better because of you.

Thank you and be well!
