- 1. How can I support other students to do well with remote instruction and virtual learning this semester and perhaps win a free HACC Yeah®! T-shirt?

We are so #HACCproud of you for continuing your education during this pandemic. We know it is not easy, but a little support and inspiration can make the path easier.

We would like to share some of your inspirational stories and tips with current and future students and offer you a chance to win a HACC Yeah®! T-shirt!

By Sept. 30, please visit hacc.edu/HACCtogether and submit a testimonial, video and/or photo about how you are overcoming challenges, connecting with other students and learning cool new things in your classes.

2. Has HACC developed expectations for students participating in remote learning classes?

Yes. HACC has developed expectations for students in remote learning. The expectations are available on your myHACC portal:

3. I have art supplies that are still in the Rose Lehrman Arts Center. I have one class for this semester that has some on-campus meetings, but it is in a different building. Is there any way I can retrieve my art supplies if I don't have classes in the Rose Lehrman Arts Center?

Please email your school dean, Leslie Boon, at lmboon@hacc.edu. Dean Boon will assist with the process to retrieve your supplies.

4. Where can I learn more information on identity theft?

According to PSECU, identity theft is defined as when a person's personal information is taken and used by someone else for fraudulent purposes.

PSECU provides the webinar, "Have We Met? Protecting Yourself from Identity Theft," discussing how you can protect yourself from identity theft.

PSECU's Financial Education Center at HACC is available for virtual office hours by phone or Zoom. Please contact Jennifer Nicrone, PSECU community manager, at jnicrone@psecu.com to schedule an appointment.

Please do not include personal information (such as your bank account number and social security number) in your email message.

5. Will the library be open to students? Will students be able to come to campus to print papers for class if a printer isn't available at home?

The campuses remain closed through the fall semester except for hands-on labs. All student library resources can be found here. Students can also use the chat features located on the Library webpage.

For the fall semester, the HACC bookstore will print your materials and mail them to your home at no cost. Please complete and submit this online form:
