College Mace

The College Mace is a ceremonial staff symbolizing the authority of the College. It was crafted by Maurice C. Overholt, vice president emeritus of administration, who was the first business manager of HACC. The Mace is made from a cherry tree cut down during the construction of the John N. Hall Technology Center. The symbols at the top of the Mace are made of brass. Taken from the College Seal, each symbol represents an aspect of the College’s educational mission.

The HACC banners, representing each campus and Virtual Learning, are carried by HACC volunteers.

Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society

Phi Theta Kappa is an international honorary scholastic society for community and junior colleges. Membership in the Alpha Nu Omega chapter at HACC is limited to learners who have accumulated 12 or more college-level credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher and who are committed to community service. Phi Theta Kappa members can be recognized by their gold tassels and stoles marked by the organization’s Greek letters.

Lambda Beta National Honor Society for Respiratory Care

Lambda Beta is a national honor society for those in the profession of respiratory care. The purpose of the society is to promote, recognize and honor scholarship, scholarly achievement, service and character of learners, graduates and faculty members of the profession. The name of the society is based on the goals of the profession: sustaining life (lambda) and breath (beta) for all. Lambda Beta members can be recognized by the blue and green honor cords worn on their gowns. The HACC chapter was formed in 2010.

Alpha Delta Nu

Alpha Delta Nu is the honor society for associate degree nursing programs, established to promote scholarship and academic excellence in the profession of nursing. Membership is offered to nursing learners who have maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.0, earned a grade of B or better in each nursing class and demonstrated conduct on campus and the clinical areas that reflects integrity and professionalism. Members of this honor society are wearing peach-colored honor cords.

Kappa Beta Delta National Honor Society

Kappa Beta Delta, established by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs through the Federation of Business Honor Societies, is comprised of associate degree-seeking learners of administration, business, management and other business programs who have accumulated 15 or more college-level credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Kappa Beta Delta members are recognized by their royal blue stoles marked by the organization’s Greek letters. HACC was the first community college to establish a Kappa Beta Delta chapter.

Mu Alpha Theta National Mathematics Honor Society

Mu Alpha Theta, a national mathematics honor society, is dedicated to inspiring interest and scholarship in two-year college learners for the subject of mathematics. Members are recommended by mathematics faculty, have completed college algebra and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher overall and in mathematics. Mu Alpha Theta members are recognized by the gold and turquoise honor cords worn on their gowns. The HACC chapter was formed in 2002.

HACC, Central Pennsylvania’s Community College
Mary Richards, M.A.
Faculty Speaker

Mary Richards, M.A., earned an Associate in Arts in communications from HACC, a Bachelor of Arts in secondary education, English and a Master of Arts in humanities from The Pennsylvania State University, accomplishments that take a close second place to her role as a parent of three sons.

For the past 13 years, she has taught writing and literature at HACC, served for nine years as an advisor for the Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) Honor Society and is the advisor for the Multicultural Union Club and the Returning Adult Student Association.

Kelly Jo Singleton
Learner Speaker

Kelly Jo Singleton is graduating with an Associate in Science in communication with a concentration in human communication. She is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) Honor Society and is on the dean’s list. As a nontraditional learner, Kelly has enjoyed and appreciated being a virtual learner and currently serves as the Vice Council Chair of the Virtual Learning Student Advisory Council (VLSAC). Earlier this year, she received the Classroom Hero award for her encouraging support to online classmates. In January, she will begin the online Bachelor of Arts in social work at Millersville University. Kelly is a self-employed interfaith minister who officiates ceremonies. She plans to combine her knowledge from the communication and social work degrees, along with her position as a reverend to help people of all backgrounds and cultures. Her life's motto is, "Everyone matters."

Joyce M. Davis, Ph.D.
Mace Bearer

Joyce M. Davis, Ph.D., is Opinion Editor for PennLive and has a distinguished career working for some of the most respected media organizations in the United States.

She is founder and president of the World Affairs Council of Harrisburg, an award-winning journalist and internationally acclaimed author who has lived and worked around the globe.

Davis began her career as a night-side reporter for The New Orleans Times-Picayune, where she spent the first 18 years of her career, serving as night city editor, assistant metro editor, consumer columnist and editor of an international Op-Ed column for the editorial page, an idea she initiated due to her early interest in global affairs.

She is fluent to conversant in several foreign languages, having lived three times abroad in France, Athens and Prague.

Davis is author of many articles, broadcasts and two books. She also authored a chapter in The Trauma of Terrorism, a compendium of the writings of experts in the field.

Davis has appeared on many national and international news programs and was frequently called to speak as an international affairs expert, including at the U.S. Naval Academy, the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, the United Nations, the U.S. Department of State, the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, Georgetown University and American University.

In 2002, the U.S. Secretary of State’s Open Forum awarded Davis a “Distinguished Service Award” and Women in International Security, based in Washington, D.C., also named Davis to its Hall of Fame.

In 2006, Kyrgyz International University awarded her an honorary doctorate degree for her work in advancing a free and independent press in the former Soviet Union and for securing the free flow of information to Kyrgyzstan during the downfall of its dictatorial regime in the “Tulip Revolution” of 2005.

Davis has also received honorary doctor degrees from Austin College in Texas, Lebanon Valley College and Central Penn College.

Davis attended Loyola University in New Orleans and completed a master’s level journalism program at the Center for the Formation and Perfection of Journalism in Paris as part of the Journalists in Europe program sponsored by the European Union and Columbia University.

Davis lives in Susquehanna Township with her husband, Russell W. Goodman, Pastor of Calvary United Methodist Church in Lemoyne; and her son, Cole Davis Goodman.

The Academic Procession

One of the oldest traditions of colleges throughout the world is the academic procession. The caps, gowns and hoods seen in the procession at this Commencement are inheritances from the university scholar of more than 600 years ago.

In the early days of the universities, the ordinary dress of the scholar, whether a learner or teacher, was the dress of a cleric or clerk. He wore a long gown with a long sleeveless tunic over it, and in cold weather, a long full cloak to which a shoulder-length cape with a hood was attached. From these long gowns and hoods, the present-day academic wardrobe evolved.

University regulations regarding dress among learners and faculty first were issued in the 14th century, and in many universities, rules specifically prohibited scholars and faculty from wearing high-fashion clothing.

Color had symbolism in the medieval university, but there was little uniformity from one institution to another. The definite association of certain colors with certain ranks and degrees was standardized in the United States in 1895. The regulations prescribe the style of gowns and the colors that represent the different fields of learning.

The colorful hoods, which indicate fields of learning and the institutions conferring the degrees, originally were worn over the head, but in England during the 16th century, caps replaced the hoods and the hoods were worn draped over the shoulders. As caps became larger, they were stiffened with boards and developed into the present-day mortar boards.

The tassel evolved from a tuft on top of the medieval scholar’s skull cap. In current usage, a gold bullion tassel denotes the doctoral degree. The principal fields of learning are represented by colors as follows:

- Agriculture - Maize
- Architecture - Blue Violet
- Arts, Letters, Humanities - White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business - Drab
- Dentistry - Lilac
- Economics - Copper
- Education - Light Blue
- Engineering - Orange
- Fine Arts - Brown
- Forestry - Russet
- Journalism - Crimson
- Law - Purple
- Library Science - Lemon
- Medicine - Kelly Green
- Music - Pink
- Nursing - Apricot
- Oratory, Speech - Silver
- Pharmacy - Olive Green
- Philosophy - Dark Blue
- Physical Education - Sage Green
- Public Administration - Peacock Blue
- Public Health - Salmon Pink
- Science - Golden Yellow
- Social Service, Social Work - Citron
- Theology - Scarlet
- Veterinary Science - Gray

Honor YOUR Graduate and Make an Impact!

In honor of your graduate, please visit hacc.edu/NamingOpportunities to name a brick, tree, bench or space.

Imagine your graduate enjoying the recognition and honor of seeing their name displayed in a public place at HACC. All five campuses of HACC offer naming opportunities.

Your generous support will benefit current and future HACC students. Contributions for naming opportunities range from $100 to $1 million.

Thank you!

Gratefully

YOURS.
Make it YOUR time to achieve your dreams.

Like Tanishia, at HACC, you can find:

- High-quality programs (online and on-campus) in fields such as business, health and social sciences to get you the career you deserve
- Child care options, free tutoring and five convenient campuses to help you reach your goals
- Affordable classes to earn your way to job security

Find YOUR place at HACC. Register for spring classes now by visiting hacc.edu/GetStarted.
