Subject: Update on the HACC Faculty Union - Nov. 11, 2025
Date: Tuesday, November 11, 2025 1:47:56 PM

Good afternoon, colleagues.

HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College, has been notified that the Harrisburg Area Community College Education Association (HACCEA) - the union that represents the faculty - has declared that it will strike beginning on Nov. 12, 2025, at 12:01 a.m.

The College is deeply disappointed by this decision, as we believe a strike will directly and negatively impact HACC students who work hard to reach their educational goals and dreams. For more information, please view our statement in our online newsroom.

Please:

1. Note that HACC remains open and operational across all campuses
2. Note that, despite what may be portrayed in the media and on social media, a majority of HACC faculty will be teaching and educating our students during the strike.
3. Note that, in addition, a majority of HACC students will be attending their classes during the strike.
4. View this guide to help HACC students stay on track during a faculty strike
